

Halafu?

FemSaidia Action Lab · Kenya · 2026

After every report. After every march. After every hashtag. After every summit. Halafu? So now what?

“ Too much admiration of the pink elephant and very little slaying of the dragon. — That is Kenya's femicide response in a sentence. Halafu? is the dragon-slaying infrastructure.

Kenya records a femicide every 47 hours. We have data. We have outrage. We have reports. What we do not have is architecture — a pipeline of specific, funded, executable projects that interrupt the path from misogyny to murder. FemSaidia built the intelligence layer. Halafu? is the action layer.

WHY FEMSAIDIA · WHY NOW

Live intelligence Real-time femicide tracking, sentiment analysis and tech-facilitated violence monitoring across all 47 counties.

Proven tools Salmin (*384*89056#), hepa, Red Flag and Itika are live — used by women in Kenya today. Halafu? builds on a working platform.

The pipeline is documented We know which creators radicalise Kenyan boys. We know the highest-risk counties. We have the data to build with.

No one else is doing this Every other organisation responds after the fact. FemSaidia combines intelligence, safety tools and a prevention pipeline in one place.

You do not need to wait for a grant application. Come to us. Tell us which project you want to fund. We will build the conversation from there.
